SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK WONDERS

TO 'KEEP,' NOT 'OBEY' PROPOSED CHANGE IN NUPTIAL SERVICE

Commission Recommends Substitution in Protestant Episcopal Marriage Service.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—"Love, honor and keep" will be substituted for the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony of the Protestant Episcopal Church if the recommendations of a commission of twenty-one is adopted at the church convention at St. Louis Oct. 11.

If the report is accepted by the convention and later by the diocese of the church it will become the law of the church. Bride and bridegroom will then promise in identical language to "love, honor and keep" each other, and neither will promise to obey.

A minority report is in favor of omitting the words "as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together," and also the statement that marriage "is commended of St. Paul to be honorable among all men" and the words that marriage was "instituted in the time of man's innocency."

The pledge made with the ring service, "with all my worldly goods I thee endow," will not be altered, if the committee's report is accepted.

Radical changes are proposed in the burial and baptismal services and in the arrangements of various prayers and songs.

The Commandments will be abbreviated. The Third Commandment will read: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain." The fourth, "Remember that thou shalt keep holy the Sabbath day. The fifth, "Honor thy father and thy mother." The ninth, "Thou shalt not bear false witness." The tenth, "Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's."

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulled coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulled coconut oil at any pharmacy; it's very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advt.
